Senator Sabin, of Minnesota, has been sued by persons in Chicago for the sum of $250,000 who were former stockholders in Sabin's company. It is not likely that they will recover enough to pay costs, although those who know Sabin best say that he failed to his own advantage. His wife owns a good deal of property. Sabin is a sharp business man and did not fail for nothing.

Chicago elevators, as per official returns, contain 12,355,882 bushels of wheat, 6,505,005 bushels of corn, 1,071,608 bushels of oats, 157,719 bushels of rye and 181,856 bushels of barley, making a grand total of 20,272,070 bushels, against 19,829,576 bushels a week ago, and 18,646,994 bushels at this period last year. In addition to the above, vessels in the harbor are laden with 220,120 bushels of wheat and 2,177,039 bushels of corn.

More than 10,000,000 pounds of artificial butter were manufactured and sold in this country in the months of November, December, and January, but only 114,697 pounds were exported. It appears, then, that we are consuming artificial butter at the rate of about 40,000,000 pounds a year. This will be interesting news to outsiders. If no one were deceived and outwitted by sellers, only a very small part of this product would find a market in the United States.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is thoroughly republican in his instincts. He was asked to write something in the "Princess of Wales" album, and he says of it: "I never refused to write in the birthday book or the album of the humblest school-girl or school-boy, and I could not refuse to set my name with a verse from one of my poems in the album of the Princess of Wales, who was sent for that purpose." So he copied into it the last verse of the "The Clamorous Natives," as he had often done for plain republican nabobs.

According to the official statement of the treasury, the surplus now on hand is $21,000,000 in round numbers. It is reported from Washington that another ten-million dollar bond call will be issued in a few days to mature April 1. The amount of the 3 percent note subject to call is a little less than $30,000,000, and two more calls besides the one now expected will exhaust them. This will probably occur before the expiration of the fiscal year. By the figures given it will be seen that the prediction given it will be the season for the depletion of money in the treasury is not probable, or even possible.

A crowded meeting was held at the Grand opera house in Detroit Monday night to discuss the prohibitory amendment, which is now the all-absorbing topic throughout the state of Michigan. The meeting declared against the amendment and in favor of high license. There is a strong agitation both for and against the amendment to the constitution which will be voted on next month. Prominent national speakers are advertised to speak in favor of the amendment, among them ex-Governor Colquhoun of Georgia. The prohibitionists are receiving encouragement by subscriptions, and will poll a large vote.

The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: "English wheat is dull and irregular. The sales of English wheat during the week were 41,866 quarters at 33s 11d, against 72,519 quarters at 30s 1d during the corresponding week last year. Anxiety is caused by the discovery of large numbers of the pupa of the Hessian fly in the screenings of wheat from the threshing machines throughout the provinces. Agriculturists urge the immediate destruction by fire of all screenings, claiming that if there is any delay it will be too late to cope with the pest. Flour is dull and weaker, owing to the enormous supplies from America. Foreign wheat does not improve. Indian and Russian are cheaper. The Liverpool quotation is 1 penny lower. Corn is steady and against buyers. At to-day's market wheat was last Monday for both English and foreign. Foreign flour was 6 penny lower. Spout out were 3 penny cheaper.

John Sherman is doing one good thing by traveling in the south even if he is not swelling his boom. He is giving the southern people some very whole some talk on the tariff question, and the most enterprising manufacturers in that part of the country agree with the Ohio senator. Sherman is one of the greatest statesmen in this country. He is one of the ablest men in either party, and in private character and political integrity he has no superior. But it is doubtful if he can secure the nomination. He is not a man who can arouse a convention to a high state of enthusiasm. He is cold and unobtrusive in the use of the word, and never can get near the people. General Sherman once said to the senator, "John, I shake hands with more people in one month than you do in ten years." The general was right. The senator seldom shakes hands with the common people and the common people seldom if ever throw up their hats for John Sherman. He is a great statesman and a splendid financier, but not a representative of the common people.

The muggwumps have what might be called a mortgage on the president. They claim him as their own, and with not few exceptions maintain that he is a muggwump administration. On the other hand, the New York Star, the president's organ, declares that "in the matter of federal appointments from this state President Cleveland has selected for important positions gentlemen who, since

A Brilliant Start in Life Given the Happy Couple—Together with a Nest Egg of Fifty Thousand Dollars—The Ceremony Performed in a Perfect Jungle of Flowers—Wedding Notes.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 23.—The large gray stone Gothic mansion of Chauncey H. Andrews, of 750 Wyck avenue, was an Eden of flowers and verdure and crowded with a brilliant assembly Tuesday at noon, when John A. Logan, only son of the late Senator Logan and Miss Edith H. Andrews, eldest daughter of the millionaire manufacturer and speculator, were married by Rev. D. H. Evans, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church.

ANOTHER HOLOCAUST.

The Burning of a Boarding House at Bessemer.

TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE.

Bessemer, Mich., March 23.—A special from Bessemer, Mich., says that a fire broke out at the Colby Iron Mine boarding house, early this morning, which resulted in a serious loss of life. Ten bodies have already been taken from the ruins but the number of persons rescued is not yet known. Several people were badly injured that they will die. Bessemer is a mining town of 1,000 inhabitants, situated six miles east of Ironwood in Ontonagon county, Mich.

The Chicago Tribune Case. New York, March 23.—Mr. Dougherty, counsel for the defense, made the closing speech for his client in the trial of the Chicago Tribune for libel. He declared that he believed in the newspaper, but that he could not support the practice of the press in publishing columns of abuse and innuendo charged with wrong-doing, before and during the trial, and so basing public opinion that it requires weeks to find twelve men who can swear that they are competent jurors. He said that the jury in this case, when they were sworn, had sworn that they were unbiased, but that evidence would remove that bias. The press was powerful, but why did it not secure the pure administration of justice? Why did it not demand silence when a man's liberty and honor was in the hands of a court of justice? The facts belonged to the jury and should be given to that body, and should come to their consideration without bias of any kind. Any other condition was a violation of the rights of man. Mr. Dougherty then made an eloquent plea for his client.

After Mr. Dougherty's address the counsel for prosecution followed, and then Judge Barrett shared the floor, making a rapid and impartial review of the evidence and the arguments of the two men, and then he was to decide Clara's fate retired to deliberate. At 1:40 a. m. Wednesday the jury, not having agreed on a verdict, were locked up for the night. Wants Revenge on the Press Business. SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 23.—Merritt, in view of the fact that the Ohio & Mississippi railway had given notice of withdrawal of passes after April 1, introduced a resolution in the house Tuesday providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate certain alleged violations of the state law by the company. The resolution was adopted. The bill relating to savings banks and requiring trustees to be worth $100,000 in the aggregate in real estate was passed to third reading as was Hays' bill prohibiting the sale of liquor outside of incorporated towns in quantities less than five gallons. The bill does not prohibit the licensing of saloons by county boards. The bill requiring semi-monthly payment of wages in money was so amended that it is virtually dead. The senate passed a bill providing for the disbursement of the pneumo-pneumia fund.

Those who believe that nature will work off a cough or cold should understand that this is done at the expense of the constitution. Each time this work is done on the system, and we all know that the termination of this dangerous practice is a consumptive's grave. Don't take the chances, when a fifty-cent bottle of Dr. Bigelow's Cough Cure will safely and promptly cure any recent cough, cold or throat or lung trouble. Buy the dollar bottle for chronic cases or family use. & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

A Large Number of Bills Passed.

And Several Killed in Both Houses.

Special to the Gazette.

MADISON, March 23.—In the senate this morning bills were passed appropriating the thousand dollars for each year—87 and '88—to the governor's contingent fund.

A bill was killed appropriating one hundred dollars to the Women's Relief Corps.

Assembly bills were concurred in appointing an assistant district attorney in Milwaukee; allowing the appointment of public guardians or administrators where others fail to act; requiring towns, villages and cities to appoint boards of health; permitting stockholders of town insurance companies to decide by ballot the kind of property to be insured; requiring bank stock to be taxed in the county where the bank is located; changing the time when the secretary of state shall certify to county clerk's appointment of state tax to fourth Monday in October; making maximum penalty for abduction of minors five thousand dollars or three years' imprisonment; requiring the mortgagor of stock of goods to file an inventory of sale and additions to his stock every sixty days; increasing the penalty for selling encumbered land without informing purchaser of it.

The senate refused to concur in the assembly bill making it unlawful for any public officer to extort a confession from a prisoner in his charge by bribery, abuse or trickery.

In the assembly bills were passed providing for publication of seven thousand extra blue books, one of which shall go to each district department of each school district. Bills were killed abolishing state pension agency and requiring agent to make biennial report. The bill prohibiting discrimination by railway companies was ordered to third reading.

THE IRON HAND FOR ERIN.

Beginning of the Fight in the British Parliament.

LONDON, March 23.—By means of dilatory tactics the opposition in parliament kept the house in session all Monday night and until 1:30 p. m. Tuesday. This was because the government insisted upon the passage of the civil service bill, before a bill for the relief of the Irish land, and the bill was finally passed, in spite of obstructions.

Tuesday night Smith, first lord of the treasury, moved that the government's criminal law amendment bill be referred over all orders of the day. Ireland, he declared, was in a disorganized state, and the government, under a strong sense of public duty, was bound to take measures to restore order. The details of the measure would be stated at the proper time by the chief secretary for Ireland, but what he now wished to speak about—in short, to urge—was the absolute necessity for the measure, and the vital importance of its becoming law.

Concerning the government land bill, he said it would be divided into two parts, one of which would be introduced immediately and the other—a land purchase bill of wide scope—later on. Both would be framed on principles of honesty and justice, but, he said, there was no hope whatever that any measure formulated on those lines would give satisfaction to the National league, the sole cause of all the disorganization and disorder in Ireland.

Morley moved that the house reject the question of emergency introduced by Smith, and in support of his motion said that extending a very narrow area of land territory in Ireland was not to be regarded as the existing state of affairs, but as a step towards the adoption of restrictive legislation, and that the measure would be materially weakened for the cause of the combining of the people of Ireland in the "plan of campaign" had been declared by the royal land commission to be their absolute inability to pay the extravagant rack rents demanded by the landlords.

Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, said the government bill was introduced, because the cause of the combining of the people of Ireland in the "plan of campaign" had been declared by the royal land commission to be their absolute inability to pay the extravagant rack rents demanded by the landlords.
